

CaAIM Lunch and Learn:

Managed Care Plan Tribal Liaison Lunch and Learn

March 18, 2026 | 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

Join us for a discussion on the Tribal Liaison role, its connection to CaAIM, and key insights and emerging best practices from ongoing collaboration efforts. We will review expectations, responsibilities, and accountability structures, with particular attention to culturally responsive engagement, collaboration, and implementation alignment within CaAIM. Participants will gain clarity on how this role strengthens tribal engagement.

This session will be agency oriented.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Clarify Tribal Liaison responsibilities
- Define role within CaAIM implementation

CaAIM lunch and learns are an ongoing series with different topics each month!

ABOUT THE TRAINER:

Tara Gray: Tara Gray is the MCP Tribal Liaison for BAIHP and KHS dedicated to strengthening health access and equity for Native American communities. She works closely with providers and tribal partners to ensure culturally responsive care and meaningful collaboration. Rooted in service and community, Tara is committed to advocacy, wellness, and empowering the people she serves.

Jessica Mosher MBA, DrPH: Jessica Mosher MBA, DrPH (Pascua Yaqui) is a public health leader dedicated to advancing the wellbeing of American Indian/Alaska Native communities through culturally grounded policy, research, and advocacy. Drawing on her expertise in health equity and geospatial analysis, she works to illuminate and address systemic disparities impacting Native peoples across the United States. Through her leadership, research, and service, Dr. Mosher continues to elevate AI/AN voices in the spaces where health and healing decisions are made.
